Club Details

The venue for film and live broadcast showings is at the Harborough Theatre, Church Square. This venue has over 100 tiered seats in an air conditioned auditorium and has a high quality screen and digital projection facilities. It has Dolby surround sound (12 loudspeakers) and an induction loop is installed to assist members with hearing aids. The theatre has a separate bar and lounge area where members can enjoy a drink before and after they watch the film or live broadcast which will help to make cinema evenings an informal and enjoyable community event. The central town location of the theatre means that there is plenty of parking nearby.

Octagon members can buy tickets for both films and live broadcasts in advance from Quinns Bookshop, Three Crowns Yard, off the High Street between Joles & Andrew Granger Mon – Sat: 09.30 – 16.30hrs. You can pay by cash or cheque (made payable to Octagon Films). Tickets may also be bought on-line for live broadcasts, only, by visiting Octagon's website.

Alternatively, members can obtain tickets 45 minutes before the start of a film performance and a live broadcast at the venue. Membership cards must be shown to gain the member's discount rate for live broadcasts and film showings. You can pay by cash or cheque (made payable to Octagon Films).

Over 30 films and about 30 live broadcasts are shown each year. Members will receive a programme by e-mail for both films and live events approximately every 7 weeks which gives details of the actors & a short description of the films and live shows. The main showing night is a Friday for films but films are regularly shown on a Saturday. Live broadcasts are normally shown on Thursdays and Sundays.

If you do not have an e-mail address, you can collect your programmes at the theatre in the lounge. Alternatively, programmes are available at Quinns. New programmes are available at least 5 events prior to the start of the new programme
